

PRIVACY STATEMENT

Envision Technology Solutions, part of Peak Performance Solutions, Inc., strives to achieve the highest standards of integrity for every online visitor. When you visit an Envision Technology Solutions site, we aim to respect your privacy. This Privacy Policy sets forth how we handle what we learn about you when you visit our web site, including:

- The information we collect
- The choices that are available to you regarding how your information is used and to whom it is disseminated
- The misuse or alteration of your information while under our control

If you have any questions or comments about Envision's Privacy Policy, please contact us.

Information we collect and how we use it

Envision Technology Solutions collects two types of information about you when you visit our site: personal information (including, by way of example only, your name, address, telephone number and e-mail address) and non-personal, aggregate information (such as information regarding the pages on our site that you have visited and your IP address).

Personally-identifiable information - What we collect

Visitors to this Web site browse the site anonymously. Visitors are not required to provide any personal information in order to access our Web site. The only personally-identifying information we collect and store about you is the information that you choose to provide to us.

Electronic Mail

We will also gather personally-identifiable information, such as your e-mail address, when you send us an e-mail. We will use this information to respond to your e-mail.

Online Demo Requests

We sometimes request personal information in order to provide you with accurate product information that would best fit your needs. For example, your corporate web site is used by our sales team to help them research your company and determine which of our products would best fit your needs. Information such as email, address, and phone number help our associates with responding immediately to any of your enquiries.

Contests

From time to time, we may request information from you in connection with contests that we offer on our Web sites. Participation in these contests is completely voluntary; you have a choice whether or not to disclose this information. Information requested may include contact information (such as name and shipping address), and demographic information (such as zip code, age level). Contact information will be used to notify the winners and award prizes.

Envision Technology Solutions may co-sponsor contests with other companies, in which case the user's individual contact and demographic information is likely to be shared with these companies. We will request that these companies maintain the privacy of the registrants' information.

Nevertheless, please be aware that we are not responsible for the privacy practices of such other sites. We encourage our users to read the privacy statements of each and every Web site that they visit. This privacy statement applies solely to information collected when you visit our Web site.

Business partners / Professional visitors

Business partners, clients, and professional visitors requesting access to specialized content areas of our Web sites (Exp. on-line demo page) may be required to provide identifying information such as a user name and password. The identifying information that is provided to you from Envision Technology Solutions is for your personal use and is not to be shared with any other person than yourself.

Sharing your information

We may share your personally-identifiable information with companies within the ETS\Near North family of companies only. We do not resell or transfer personal information to unaffiliated third parties for marketing or any other purposes.

Non personally-identifiable information - What we collect

Envision Technology Solutions Web sites may collect non-personally identifiable information during your visit, such as type of browser, operating system, domain name, or IP address. An IP address is a number that is automatically assigned to your computer whenever you're browsing the Web. Web servers automatically identify your computer by its IP address. When you visit pages on Envision Technology Solutions' web sites our servers log your IP address. We do not link IP addresses to any personally identifiable information. This means that your session will be logged, but you remain anonymous to us. IP address information is used only to analyze trends and gather broad demographic information.

Envision Technology Solutions also collects information through various environmental variables. "Environmental variables" include, among other things, the domain from which you access the Internet, the time you accessed our Web site, type of Web browser and operating system or platform used, the Internet address of the Web site you left to visit Envision Technology Solutions Web site, the name of the pages you visit while at our Web site, and the Internet address of the Web site you then visit. We collect all of this information to allow us to detect broad demographic trends, to provide information tailored to your interests and to enhance your experience on Envision Technology Solutions' Web sites.

Links

Our Web sites may contain links to other sites. Please be aware that we are not responsible for the privacy practices of such other sites. We encourage our users to read the privacy statements of each and every Web site that they visit. This privacy statement applies solely to information collected when you visit our Web site.

Special policy regarding information from children under thirteen

This Web site is not targeted to children under the age of 13, and we do not knowingly request personally identifiable information from any child under the age of 13 without parental consent. When we do receive such information, we delete it as soon as we discover it and do not use it or share it with third parties.

Choice

Envision Technology Solutions provides the following choices regarding the use of your information. By providing us with your information, we assume that you are giving us consent to use the information provided to contact you and provide to you information regarding Envision Technology Solutions and its products. You may choose not to provide us with any contact information. If you consent to receive communications, but you later change your mind, you can deactivate or modify your user data by contacting us directly.

Web site security

Our systems are configured to provide privacy, integrity, and authentication in Internet communications. The security measures we have taken help ensure that private information is secure and encrypted, so that a third party cannot capture, read or access the information while it is in transit between your computer and our system. We limit internal access to our servers and adhere to high standards of ethics and integrity in performing our jobs and conducting business.

No warranty

The information and materials contained in this site-including text, graphics, links or other items-are provided "as is," "as available." Envision Technology Solutions does not warrant the accuracy, adequacy or completeness of this information and materials and expressly disclaims liability for errors or omissions in this information and materials. No warranty of any kind, implied, express or statutory, including but not limited to the warranties of non-infringement of third-party rights, title, merchantability, fitness for a particular purpose and freedom from computer virus, is given in conjunction with the information and materials.

Copyright

Materials copyrighted by Envision Technology Solutions or owned by any individual or entity are presented here for personal, non-commercial use only. Documents, content or images contained in this Web site may not be copied or reproduced in any form without the written permission of Envision Technology Solutions.

Limitation of liability

In no event will Envision Technology Solutions be liable for any damages, including without limitation direct or indirect, special, incidental or consequential damages, losses or expenses arising in connection with any failure of performance, error, omission, interruption, defect, delay in operation or transmission, computer virus or line or system failure, even if Envision Technology Solutions, or representation thereof, are advised of the possibility of such damages, losses or expenses.

How to contact us

If you have any questions about this privacy policy, please e-mail our Webmaster. Please reference the "Privacy Policy" in those communications.
